This picture was taken during our very enjoyable Burns Night supper at the Cross Inn Great Bromley. Those members that have been on our Morris Traveller events may have thought the MC for the evening (Andy Schooler) was familiar, the reason being he is one of the Morris Dancers. It was such a great evening, Andy did a great job (he even slipped in a couple of plugs for CAMRA in his speech), the atmosphere was fantastic and the food was marvellous. Everything we do has an element of campaigning for example this demonstrated to the locals that we support good local pubs. It also showed we are not the much caricatured CAMRA ale drinker, we are a very diverse group and not just pot bellied, bearded men!

FACT FOR TODAY

Britain's most remote pub is the Old Forge on Inverie in Scotland. It's 107 miles from the nearest city, Inverness, and has no road access.
