The 14th Clacton-on-Sea Beer and Cider Festival

Wednesday 26th August 2009 6pm-11pm
Thursday 27th to Saturday 29th August 2009 11am-11pm

St. James' Hall, Tower Road, Clacton-on-Sea. CO15 1LF

This leaflet illustrates the route that we as locals would probably take as the most direct from the railway station to the festival. If you want to visit the town centre at all, then you may prefer to head down Station Road (past the town hall) to where it meets Pier Avenue.

Any pubs marked on this map have been included as an aid to navigation and should not be used as an indication as to the availability or quality of real ale.

For your convenience a timetable showing trains from Clacton is printed inside this leaflet. Times were believed to be correct at the time of going to print. Any changes will be displayed on a poster at the festival.

NB: There is engineering work planned between Colchester and Thorpe-le-Soken for Saturday 29th August which should finish at noon, but will involve rail replacement buses before that. There is other engineering work between Witham and Manningtree which will last all day. If your journey involves either of these sections of line you should check for temporary timetable alterations and allow longer for your travel.
